Produced by Emmy © Award winning Christopher Productions in New Mexico, this program will highlight the most recent brain research involving cell phone use, DWI, and other causes of crashes and help us all understand why distracted driving crashes are rising at an alarming rate, especially for young people.

Made possible by: NM Department of Transportation, Bernalillo County Substance Abuse Prevention Program, State Farm Insurance Company, Cooperative Educational Services, Independent Insurance Agents of New Mexico, New Mexico Coalition of Educational Leaders, New Mexico School Boards Association, New Mexico Parent Teacher Association and The City of Albuquerque.
